

Transitioning Together Group

Evidence-based intervention addressing transition to adulthood for young adults (ages 14-21) with ASD and other neurodevelopmental disorders

Now enrolling for spring and fall groups!

This program will address topics such as:

- ASD in adulthood
- Employment planning
- Post-secondary education planning
- Family stressors/communication
- Legal considerations
- Community involvement
- Health and well-being
- Problem solving skills
- ...and more!

only at

University of Minnesota ASD Clinic

717 Delaware Street SE, Minneapolis, MN

All groups are billed to insurance

- Learn from experts in your community!
- Obtain information and resources to help you take the next steps!

Call to schedule an intake today!
612-365-8081

For additional information, contact
Dr. Rebekah Hudock at 612-626-3538
or kale0040@umn.edu